JUNIOR FUNDAY - 1st March 2003

As seen, thoroughly enjoyed by all. Supported by four clubs within the BAA Southern Region, Tanseikan, Eastleigh, Ittaikan & Kikusui Kai. A record number of entries at 44. Thanks go to Vanda & David for a well organised and great day.

BAA SOUTHERN AREA AGM

An immense vote of thanks is due from the heart to all who took time out from their day of rest to support the SA AGM. A record 43 voting members attended, not forgetting the four juniors. With everyone pulling together the day went exactly as planned and only took the allotted two hours. Well done to all supporters and candidates alike. The Southern Region is financially sound, thanks to Treasurer Terry Gibbs. Communications are good thanks to Secretary Kevin Harris and with the new blood of Jason Pearson as Chairman, we have a strong team. These are supported by EC Representatives, Tony Evangelou, Simon Broom & Adrian Tyndale. Not forgetting our new Junior Co-ordinator John Grima. The Region is also very fortunate to have on board Andy Stiggear as the National Dan Grade Registrar and Lesley Hepden who is the BAA Secretary. We look forward to building a better and more integrated region and in turn a stronger BAA.

KATA SESSIONS 2003

Kikusui Kai are running Kata sessions
every Wednesday 8pm to 10pm @

Open-Door Community Centre, Keevil Drive, Wimbledon,
London SW19 6TF

Currently the group are working on Koryu Dai San.
Anyone interested just turn up.

THE ANCIENT SECRETS OF AIKIDO

By Senta Yamada

This is a publication written by the man who brought Tomiki Aikido to the United Kingdom back in 1959. Six years later he left London and some of his students went on to form the British Aikido Association. He is still teaching Aikido regularly around the world. At this moment he is building a group in Sri Lanka. Sales of this book will assist Yamada sensei's fight to help people less fortunate than most. The book can be purchased from BAA Promotions and will be available in June, 2003. Place your order now to reserve your copy.
